Labour Courts and Industrial Tribunals in Delhi

1951. SHRI V. GOPALSAMY : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) whether labour courts and industrial tribunals are functioning in Delhi as on date;

(b) where are each of these courts and tribunals located ;

(c) what is the number of the cases pending in each of these courts and tribunals ;

(d) now many among them are presently without presiding officers and date of each vacancy ; and

(e) is there any proposal to increase the number of labour courts and tribunals and if so, the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA) : (a) to (d) A statement showing the number, location and incumbency position of Presiding Officers of the labour courts and industrial tribunals functioning in Delni as on date and the number of industrial disputes and applications pending before them as on 31-12-1993 is attached as a statement, (See below).

(e) Two more Labour Courts sanctioned in 1990-91 by the Government of the National Capital Territory of Delhi are expected to start functioning shortly. At present the Central Government has no proposal under consideration to set up more CGIT-cum-Labour Courts in Delhi.
